At the Fredericton Playhouse, we know that learning can happen outside of the classroom, and we believe there is value in visiting the theatre at a young age! That's why each year we host a series of matinée performances designed for students of all age groups to experience the magic of live performance.

This year, we have three dynamic performances to offer schools in a variety of genres including theatre, puppetry, circus arts, music, and spoken word.

Teach outside the classroom by bringing your students to see a performance at the Fredericton Playhouse. Study guide activities are available for most shows, allowing you to connect the students' experience to the curriculum.

HOW TO BOOK A school field trip

Visit our website to fill out the online booking and grant application form and reserve your spot at a performance: <https://bit.ly/3hFpBw1>

Grants for general assistance and bus subsidies are available through the online booking form; see below for information about each available grant.

Please note: there is no deadline to book a school field trip, but space fills up quickly; grant applications are due by Friday, September 23, 2022.

GENERAL ASSISTANCE grant

General assistance grants cover the cost of student admissions. Each year, the Playhouse awards 1000+ student admissions in the Anglophone West School District through this grant. Each school can apply for up to 200 students.

All applications will be reviewed by a committee and awarded based on (1) financial need, (2) history of participation; and (3) benefit to students and schools.

Application deadline: Friday, September 23, 2022

TRANSPORTATION subsidy

Decrease your transportation costs by applying for a transportation subsidy. Schools attending one or more of the performances presented by Fredericton Playhouse may be reimbursed for transportation up to $100.

Application deadline: Friday, September 23, 2022

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 14 | 10 A.M.

Théâtre de l'Oeil's Blue Marco

🕒 55 mins | Grades K-4

💰 $8 per student

📖 Study guide available

Marco's life has been turned upside down with the arrival of his baby sister. His mom is so tired, and his father is overwhelmed...

Marco and his friend Gina invent whimsical stories, just for fun. Stories about an alien from a strange planet where children don't have to go to school, where there are only two days in a week, and where life just seems to be so much more exciting than it is down here on Earth!

Then, one night, an entirely blue alien appears in Marco's room and takes the little boy to his fantastical world. When the boy returns from this adventure, he understands that life on Earth can be extraordinary... even with a baby sister! "Blue Marco encourages children to think philosophically about life and to imagine ways they could live their own life differently. The show is also an expression of how imagination can help us face those inevitable challenges we face in life."

MONDAY, MARCH 27 | 10 A.M.

L'Aubergine's Ripopée

🕒 55 minutes | Grades K-7

💰 $8 per student

📖 Study guide available

This theatrical fable for students in grades K through 7 is packed full of clownish energy, music, and acrobatics!

One fine morning, four artists are quietly preparing to receive their audience... but the guests have arrived earlier than expected! The performance then starts off with a bang and everything gets mixed up: everyday life interferes with the show and forces it to take another route, that of the unpredictable...

For these four pals, time is a great travel companion that sparks their curiosity, stimulates their sense of awe, and enhances their tremendous joy in being together. Letting their imaginations run wild, they dive into their eccentric world, bringing the audience along for the fantastical ride!

Solidarity, playfulness, rivalry, and admiration are at the very heart of this adventure. This group of friends will discover, throughout the show, their greatest strength: the immense pleasure of being together.

TUESDAY, MAY 2 | 10 A.M. & 12 P.M.

Shaun Boothe: Unauthorized Biography Series

TERRY FOX, MALALA YOUSAFZAI, BOB MARLEY

🕒 50 mins + 10 min Q&A | Grades 4-12

💰 $8 per student

📖 Study guide available

The Unauthorized Biography Series is a musical project that celebrates the world's greatest cultural icons through biographical hip hop songs. Each chapter of the series captures the legacy of a positive and influential iconic figure. Half TED Talk, half live concert, Shaun uses music, multimedia, and motivation to deliver powerful and transformative messaging in a way that truly sticks.

Live Your Legacy is a flagship combination of biographies tailored to empower, educate, and inspire students (and adults alike) to realize their greatest potential. Celebrating our heroes to help foster a sense of purpose in the young leaders of tomorrow, this high energy show is packed with messages of empowerment and inspiration.

This Live Your Legacy (Canada) performance features biographies of Terry Fox, Malala Yousafzai, and Bob Marley. The accompanying study guide will help students explore rap and hip-hop music with themes of leadership, character education, resilience, overcoming challenges, strength in unity, caring for others, finding purpose in the bigger picture, and creating a positive legacy.

TAKE A TOUR OF THE PLAYHOUSE!

Give your students a behind-the-scenes look at how a professional performance venue operates! Tours include a trip to the fly floor*, spotlight booth* and dressing rooms, as well as an onstage lighting and sound demonstration.

Tours of the Playhouse are free of charge, usually between 60 and 90 minutes, and booked based on availability of the theatre.

If you would like to book a tour of the Fredericton Playhouse for your class or group, please contact Sally Goodwin, Director of Operations, at sally@theplayhouse.ca.
